

Intel Unite Solution with BluescapeNow: Work Better, Together

Collaboration is all about working together, and that includes running better meetings. The unique combination of Intel Unite® Solution and BluescapeNow™ boosts meeting productivity and team collaboration. Meetings start quickly and effortlessly, so teams can spend more time getting actual work done.

What is Intel Unite Solution?

The Intel Unite Solution powers productive and more secure collaboration. Meetings start instantly with easy wireless content sharing across room displays and other devices connected to the corporate network.

What is BluescapeNow?

BluescapeNow is an online whiteboard that allows you to express your thoughts and ideas with images, links, notes, and annotations. BluescapeNow brings visions to life by allowing teams to collaborate and share content in a persistent canvas.

BluescapeNow is the free entry point into the Bluescape family of products. Enterprise products are available as users require additional capabilities.

Why Intel Unite Solution and BluescapeNow?

Intel Unite Solution with BluescapeNow allows teams to:

- Combine the meeting efficiencies of Intel Unite Solution with the interactive collaboration of BluescapeNow
- Unify screen sharing and powerful online whiteboards to deliver an immersive experience with team members across the globe
- Reduce miscommunication and pick up meetings right where they left off

“With BluescapeNow and Intel Unite Solution, teams can more efficiently start meetings and make decisions together, exploring ideas in a highly visual way that feels entirely natural.”

—Peter Jackson, CEO, Bluescape
